Her. Geo. Bancreft, Wat. C. Bryant, esq., and others.
Gentlemen: I am very much honored by the highly compligentary call which yon have made upon me to lecture before the people of New York, and in gratefully complying with your wishes, I am far from insensible of the danger which it involves to myself, in being passed-epon by so intelligent and critical a tribunal. My hostiation lessens, however, when I reflect that you invite me to speak of my native region; in respect to which, I trust, I shall be able to disabuse the public of the North of many mistaken impressions which do us wrong. You will, I doubt not, be pleased if I shall succeed in this since it is always grateful to the just and magnammons nature to witness the utilimate accendency of Truth. I propose, then, he my subjects: "South Carolina Partisan," two lectures—or, "The Apalschians," and the security and habits of the South. Three lectures of this course will be delivered, the choice depending spon yourselves.

CYPRESS HILLS CEMETERY, Office No. 261 CYPRESS HILLS CEMETERY, Office No. 261

Broadway, corner of Warren-st.—Undertakers and others interested are kereby notified that a messenger leaves the office for the grounds every day, except Sunday, at 10 a.m. and 3

p. m., and on Sunday at 10 a.m.
Also, that a Map of the entire grounds has been completed, showing all the Avenues, Paths, Lakes, Groves, Parks, &c., &c., which may be had at the office.

These grounds were first offered to the public for Cemetary purps-ses in 1249, and they now contain the remains of more than 30,600 persons.

The increasing number of interments in this Cemetery is such as to render it absolutely necessary that all funeral processions should enter at the funeral entrance, in order that the Bell may be toiled, giving notice to the keepers of their approach, thus avoiding aclay and confusion.

The attention of Undertakers is particularly called to this regulation. By order of the Board of Trustocs.

love and ambition, Path are will be a deliceus morsel of foreshadowed trial, while, for the femials mind, the interest is even grater, as these was probably never a book in which so many of the oritical questions of reciprocity between the sexes were discussed. When it is udded to these advections that it is emineutly an American book—illustrative of that which our Republic claims as its instead superiority, and working out, in its piot, a problem of life which ends by giving America the preference, enough will have been said of its general attractions.

The characters, the relitiblers are actively to state, are drawn
